

Post Malone, DON'T UNDERSTAND

I'm a rolling stone
I took you by surprise
You hanging onto something, anything
Just like a shimmer of light
Oh, how the sorry felt

I said you're really something
Everything
To me
And I'm cold
So hold me, closer, baby

I don't understand why you like me so much
'Cause I don't like myself
I don't why you like me so much
Wish I was someone else
You say you got a million reasons
But I can't think of one
I don't understand how you like me so much
'Cause I don't like myself
Mm, mm

I'll build a church for you
They'll come from miles around

'Cause you're really something
Everything
To me
And I'm cold
So hold me, closer, baby

I don't understand why you like me so much
'Cause I don't like myself
I don't why you like me so much
Wish I was someone else
You say you got a million reasons
But I can't think of one
I don't understand how you like me so much
'Cause I don't like myself

Mm, mm
Mm, mm
