

Post Malone, LAUGH IT OFF

When we was lying down on the floor
You said I should smile more
I was killing your vibe
Pretend I didn't hear your voice, but baby, I was taking notes
Keep that in mind

Hey, you say you hate me
Ha, ha, ha, I laugh it off
Your mind is made
And I can't change it
Some ha, ha, how

Haven't seen the sun in a month, but it's all sunshine
I forgot how to cry
It feels like pain, pain is a world away
Took my cigarettes and flushed them down the drain
Okay, okay, I'm lying

Hey, you say you hate me
Ha, ha, ha, I laugh it off
Your mind is made
And I can't change it
Some ha, ha, how
I laugh it off

And if I learned anything at all
Some ha, ha, how

Talk to me, I know it's over
I'll listen like I did before

Hey, you say you hate me
Ha, ha, ha, I laughed it off
When I fuck off
Like I have lately
Some ha, ha, how
I laugh it off

And if I learned anything at all
Some ha, ha, how
Some ha, ha, how

And if I learned anything at all
Some ha, ha, how
Some ha, ha, how
