

Powderfinger, D.A.F.

Holding out for a signal to come
Solution found should appease everyone
Religion hides from developing proof
Believers try to encourage the truth

Cascading down golden rays above
Cascading down life from far beyond
May reveal the silence they deny

Sound and sight end suspicion and fear
Distant light took so long to appear
Fey black eyes mystified everyone

Cascading down golden rays above
Cascading down life from far beyond
May reveal the silence they deny

But they keep filling up, keep filling up my eyes
But they keep filling up, keep filling up my eyes
