

Powderfinger, Good-Day Ray

He's at you again ray
Testing out your head space
No matter what you do
The money still loves you

You have fallen down the stairs again
You might have to take it easy

Because we love you
And we respect you
Because we love you
And we respect you

You have fallen down the stairs again
You might have to take it easy

He's at you again ray
He's at you again ray
He's at you again ray
Testing out your head space
