

Powderfinger, Surviving

I'll stand at your shoulder
I'll keep you running right
Keep you running right
I'll fight in your corner
I'll stay by your side
I'll stay by your side

There's no need now to worry
Our love's still here tomorrow

There aint no use in crying
for whats keeping us divided
Baby we're still trying, we're still trying

We're too old to worry
About who's wrong and who is right
Is's all so by and by People need a villain
Someone to pay the price
It keeps them satisfied

There's no need now to worry
I'll still be here tomorrow

There aint no use in crying
for whats keeping us divided
Baby we're still trying, we're still trying

Baby we're still trying Baby we're surviving
