

Power Quest, Cemetery Gates

I never walked the lonely road
When I was young
You were always there to guide me

And in this time should you see me fall
Along the way
You would pick up all the pieces

Always afraid that the day would never ever happen
But deep down I knew

And at the cemetery gates
I said goodbye
To meet you again in heaven
And as the curtains starts to fall
On all we had
Can I really live without you?

And now I turn to face the truth
I'm older now
With your spirit watching over me

I hope you're in a better place
I have no doubt
Sacred hearts, sacred memories

Always afraid that the day would never ever happen
But deep down I knew

And at the cemetery gates
I said goodbye
To meet you again in heaven
And as the curtains starts to fall
On all we had
Can I really live without you?

Always afraid that the day would never ever happen
But deep down I knew

And at the cemetery gates
I said goodbye
To meet you again in heaven
And as the curtains starts to fall
On all we had
Can I really live without you?

And at the cemetery gates
I said goodbye
To meet you again in heaven
And as the curtains starts to fall
On all we had
Can I really live without you?
