

Powerman 5000, Me tongue is my life

It ain't where ya from it ain't where ya at it's what you do
and what you gotta do with the fact of the matter my tongue is my life
so carry yourself
I see ya scatter
lying deaths head
right out on the bed
you twist and turn to learn that this may never end try to find a profit your wondering why your not it actions speak louder that words blowin up top
drop to your knees
you got a minute to pray
a second to die
(?) yourself
and you(?) the lie
ask yourself when you ask yourself
why
you look yourself in the eye alright
your like land of the lost at what cost
can you deal with it I suggest you get real with it look yourself in the eye yeah is it bloodshot
do you believe in what your taught
are you not
afraid to look deeper don't fear the reaper
wake up wake up wake up
are you asleep
walker
shit talker
I know your feeling deep cuz your feeling like darker than me
why
I see clearly (?) to me cuz I don't want you near me and I see right through ya and this is gonna do ya
