gone for a moment that you'll never know all of these things that you can't control the lights from above they move in real slow giving you things that you'll never know
they know who you are!!

they know who you are!!
one for machines that fill up the sky and one for the demon that lights up you eye
they know who you are!!
