

Prayer For Cleansing, Chalice of Repentance springtime is sorrow, make love last until the heart is dead frost on the cracked glass, bleaching purity ride angel's wings into heaven, naked flesh a sick sight vomit into hair of sweat, feed myself on the lust of humanity devour orgasms of blood singing an ode of selfishness into a sea, putrid recognizance a stench of sex so strong, taste it on my tongue sweet poison caressing taste buds until death

decay - corrode from the inside out rot, melt away - the coating of security now and forever, burns numbers in my head cum to my senses, turn back the clock thrice realization of desperation suffer virgin flesh - suffer loneliness together rode the wings of demons right into hell
