

Preshrunk, This world belongs to us

We hold our fate in our hands
Nobody can take away our freedom, no!
Friendship is our strength
Desire of a change pushes us forward
Desire of a change pushes us forward
Free of imposed dogma
We create our own system of values
Brand new way of thinking
Based on truth and sincerity
Theres a future for us in this world
Our war must be won
Together we are strong
Together we cant loose
Together we shall rise
This world belongs to us
Our war must be won
