

President Mr., Olympic Dreams

Going for olympic dreams
Going for the gold
Going for the medals
That I'd never thought I'd hold
Flying on the wings of freedom
Reaching for the sky
The olympic dreams will never die

No day before
So full of deep devotion
And in my heart
I feel a strong emotion
Olympic fire
Wakes my desire
To join in the game of the world

So far away the days
Of pain and sorrow
Enjoy the games
There's a new tomorrow
Let's share the story
Of fame and glory
The party of friendship for all

The time has come
just do it now or never
A star is born
And it will last forever
Congratulations
And celebrations
It's one moment in time

The winner really takes it all
No loser will be standing small
So come and let us celebrate together
