

Pretty Maids, Heartbeat From Heaven

Been knocking at your door babe

I wonder where you've been

Now what're you trying to cover girl

Why didn't you let me in

You're driven by desire

You see I read between the lines

So why do you feed the fire baby

When things could work out fine

Well I just wanna touch you baby

Feel your heat inside

Don't you turn your back on me

I need your love right here tonight

I'm a heartbeat from Heaven

On a hide-out from Hell

I get high on your reply

Baby say you will

Tonight and forever

Stay by my side

Well I just wanna take you girl

On a never-ending ride

And each and every day girl

I'm down that widening road

It's like this desperate heart of mine'll

Switch to overload

You're animal emotion

I'm watching all your moves

You leave me in a cold sweat babe

Now what're you trying to prove

And everytime I call you
There's no answer to the phone
I'll be there to hold you girl
If you find your way back home

Chorus

When I see that growing fire in your eyes
No matter what you do or say
It' killing me inside

Chorus
