

Pretty Maids, Little drops of heaven

I was blinded by the darkness wishing for a ray of light and every day I felt so heartless with the future not insight

You crossed my path when I was down you brought me back on solid ground you gave me strength you changed my luck my only friend when times were tough

Little drops of heaven
my saving grace, sweet embrace twenty four/seven
let your love rain and ease the pain
drops of heaven

I was in my darkest hour when I felt an angels kiss and all the heartache were devoured with a thunderstorm of bliss

You picked me up you broke the ice gave me a touch of paradise standing tall, I'm shining through and girl its all because of you

Little drops of heaven
twenty four/seven
let your love rain and ease the pain
drops of heaven
my inspiration, love creation
twenty four/seven
my heart and soul, eternal glow
drops of heaven ooh, yeeah.

Little drops of heaven
twenty four/seven
let your love rain and ease the pain
drops of heaven
my inspiration, love creation
twenty four/seven
my heart and soul, internal glow
drops of heaven
(drops of heaven, drops of heaven)
(little drops of heaven, drops of heaven)
(little drops of heaven, drops of heaven)
(little drops of heaven, drops of heaven)
(little drops of heaven, drops of heaven)
(little drops of heaven, drops of heaven)
