

Pretty Maids, Perfect Strangers

Can you remember
Remember my name
As I flow through your life
A thousand oceans I have flown
Oh oh oh oh and cold spirits of ice
All my life I am the echo of your past
I am returnin
The echo of a point in time
Distant faces shine
A thousand warriors I have known
Oh oh oh oh and laughin
As the spirits appear
All your life the shadows of another day
And if you hear me talkin on the wind
Youve got to understand
We must remain perfect strangers
Perfect strangers hey
I know I must remain
Inside this silent well of sorrow
A strand of silver
Is hangin through the sky
Touchin more than you see
The voice of ages in your mind
Oh oh oh oh and its aching
With the dead of the night
Precious life
Your tears are lost in fallin rain
And if you hear me talkin on the wind
Youve got to understand
We must remain perfect strangers
Ooh perfect strangers ah yeah
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
Aaa ah ah ah oh yeah oh
