

Pretty Things, Is It Only Love

I said before, and now I'm sure
It's time to speak the truth
Say what I feel inside
There's nothing left to lose
Only time can turn the tide.

Is it only love that lets you down
Is it only love that lets you
Is it only love that lets you down.

The morning came, it brought the rain
Waking up to find she'd gone
And there's no-one else around
And your feeling so alone
And you knew it all along.

Is it only love that lets you down
Is it only love that lets you
Is it only love that lets you down.

But you need it, 'cos you said so,
Were you crying, when he said no, no,
Did he want it, did he say it,
Would you still forgive him
Even it he said, I'm sorry.

Is it only love that lets you down
Is it only love that lets you
Is it only love that lets you down.
