hold on and dont let go through everything that we done been through we still stay together(uh huh) i just pray that we can make this thang last forever i do adore you so you know you can ask for whatever you're the one who held me down through the hard times physically, mentally, body and soul you are mine the only light that i wanna see so you gotta shine (hold on and don't let go) i'll be here hands opened wide, just ask and i will provide for the rest of my life,we shall never divide and all the nights that we cried,just do this for me baby
