

Prevent Falls, Redeye

guess what i just figured out.
i hate every single person.
almost every single soul that lives and breathes and dies.
we turn away.
i hate everyone.
we are above.
the entire human race is so fucking stupid
and it times like this i can go through it.
punch your friend out over shotgun.
maybe that has meaning.
or nina who just ignores me for no goddamned reason.
we turn away.
i hate everyone.
it time i say.
i hate everyone in this whole world has no brain.
and it times like this you drive me insane.
all the beefcake spoiled obnoxious stubborn sensitive intolerable.
superior. i above you. i better than you.
when i don't like what you said to me.
wouldn't that be so convenient.
if i just let you get away with everything that i think is wrong.
