

Prick, I Apologise

Congratulations you have won
You fought off calling me for a whole year to prove your point
But I'm tired of shouting out in the night
My pride is packed away and I
I apologize for being cruel when I should have been kind
I apologize, we'll be so happy together tonight
You found a garter belt on my nose
I warned ya
My similar similarities lose touch when I drink to much
But bye bye I kiss the bottle goodbye
Forever
I know its made a fool of my
I try to reconcile
