

Pride And Fall, Elements Of Silence

Hold my hand as we walk in sand
Tempting my fate in a faithful way
Heaven knows havent wept for days
I try to hide a shameful, shameful display
Hush little sister now please dont cry
I work from 7 to 11 with a wish to die...
Watching the sand as it slip my hand
Fading away as time in glass
Feel so sad for the time we had Seemed so hard not to fall apart
Hush little sister now please dont cry
I work from 7 to 11 with a wish to die...
