

Priestess, Everything That You Are

Lights out in your room
Lights out in your car you gotta hit the ground running Lights out in the streets where I walked
To carry you home and there's no way out
I know you fell asleep, pray you don't sleep where you are now you're all alone
I know you were led by a dark hand
And I'll wait for the morning
I'll trade in all my blood
For everything that you are
What I found is the truth
What I found is enough you gotta keep on running
What I found in the room was my love
All eaten up and you're all alone
I know that you escaped, Cenobites sound the alarm and there's no way out
I know you were led by a dark hand
And I'll wait for the morning
I'll trade in all my blood
For everything that you are

(solo)

Lights out in your room
Lights out in the sky you gotta hit the ground running
Lights out in the head that you wore
As a disguise and then you'll die alone
I know they took you back, spitting out chains from the wall you know there's no way out
I know you were led by a dark hand
And I'll wait for the morning
I'll trade in all my blood
And I'll wait for the morning
I'll trade in all my blood
Wait til its over
Wait til its over
Yeah yeah yeah
Wait for the morning
I'll trade in all my blood
For everything that you are,
For everything that you are!
