

Primal Fear, Hear Me Calling

Being wesrbound on a carbon eagle
While my thoughts are spinning in circles around you
There ain't much i can do
Got a new tune from the boys to work on
On m headphone – finding melodies and words
While i am thinking about you
Only thinking about you

Hear me calling
Hear me crying for you
On my journey
30 thousand feet above the ground

A milion miles away
Hear me calling
Feel my tender embrance
I am sending all my love and faith to you
A milion miles away

Feeling weary as i am never sleeping
Saw all movies
Drank all beverages away
On this endless journey
Close to landing in a distant country
Still my thoughts are spinning in circles around you
My inner voice is calling you
Only calling for you

Hear me calling
Hear me crying for you
On my journey
30 thousand feet above the ground

A milion miles away
Hear me calling
Feel my tender embrance
I am sending all my love and faith to you
A milion miles away
