

Primal Fear, The Lost & The Forgotten

The lost and the forgotten
I've been fighting my whole damn life
Struggling with love and greed

One of us was innocent
There were lies and jealousy
Look to the left
Look to the right
Take another hit
I am buried alive
Look to the right
Should have known better
There's danger in sight

Can you give me one more reason
Can you give me one last call
One of the lost and the forgotten
But I am standing tall
This is not my war
I am burning alive
This is not my war
Down down
I will burn it down!
