Primal Fear, The Lost & The Forgotten

The lost and the forgotten I;ve been fighting my whole damen life Struggling with love nad greed

One of us was Innocent
There were lies and jealousy
Look to the right
Take another hit
I am buried alove
Look to the right
Should have known better
Theres danger in sight

Can you give me one more reason Can you give me one last call One of the ost and the forgotten But i am standing tall This is not my war I am burning alive This is not my war Down down I will bur nit down!
