

Prime Circle, Weaker Still

Well tell me one more time
Was it you that cried
And tell me one more time
I'm listening

And tell me one more time
Where are you now?
'cause I'm just wondering
Where to go, Where I've been

'cause I'm in a fast track going slow
Lost in a warm place that's so cold
And all of this makes no sense to me

And oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still, far away

Ask me just one time,
Or utter just one line
'cause of all of this I see
It bothers me

And ask me one more time
Where are we now?
'cause I'm just wondering

'cause I'm in a fast track going slow
Lost in a warm place that's so cold
And all of this makes no sense to me

And oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still, far away

I feel, I need more to save myself from this
I need to feel

Oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still
And oh, I get weaker still, far away
