Primer 55, Lessons

learn shit the hard way, takin' the wrong way always believing the lies they tell. and i've learned my lessons well. always the wrong place, always the wrong time, always end up with my pride on the shelf, i always fuck myself.

(chorus)

sorry i'm anti-social, but people make me sick. give me just one good reason, i should put up with this. everytime i turn me back i've got a knife in it. """ " """" "" "" never believing, you were decieving telling me shit that i wanted to hear, and now i don't trust myself. i gave you money, i gave you shelter i gave you everything i had.... everything i had.

(repeat chorus)

(bridge)
i should have learned this by now (waiting and i'm left here waiting, i gotta let it go)
and i should have known you by now (waiting,and i'm still here waiting, waiting for you to go)

(chorus out)
