

Prince, Love Sign

{remix of love sign from 1800-new-funk (1994)}
(we don't stop) {repeat sample in song}

Love sign {x2}
Love, love

Chorus:
If u're sick of evil knocking on your door
Throw up the love sign once and 4 ever more
If u'd rather make love and have a little fun
Throw up the love sign everybody and not the gun

In a chariot of red and gold
The cool, fuzzy voice said, "come save your soul"
Before the fear of rejection reared it's head
He stood before the masses and calmly said

Chorus

In the day of where and why we all belong
Don't nobody wanna hear a silly love song
And if they did then we would sing it on the news
While u're aiming your gun at me and I'm aiming back at u

Chorus

Now
Song now
Everybody sing the song now

If u only had one year left 2 live
What good is the time u spend if u got no love 2 give?
Let's all get up off the front and find a cause 2 back
Then we can teach the babies replications of the act, of the act

Chorus {x2}
(sick of evil knockin', yeah)
(then ev..everybody, oh)
(we can have a little fun)
(everybody, oh yeah)
(oh yeah)
(4 ever more)
(make a little love now)
(we can make love instead of guns, oh)
