

Prince, Why Should I Love You?

this chapter says, put it out of your mind and give it time
the violent purple
the purest gold
the red of the sacred heart the grey of the ghost the "l" of the lips are open to the "o" of the host the "v" of the velvet

CHORUS

of all the people in the world
why should I love you?
there's just something bout you
why should I love you?

have you ever seen a picture of Jesus laughing
mmm do you think he had a beautiful smile a smile that healed

why should I love you
(why should I love you)
why should I love you
(why should I love you)
REPEAT TO FADE
