

Princessa, Tell Her

If you don't know which way to turn
Don't cry for me when both ends burn
Stop worrying about her he'll be okay
She'll die a little bit like lovers do every day

And for me I'm too young to wait
Make up your minds before it is too late
Your life has changed you have to rearrange
So what do you want I can do anything

Won't you tell her that you've changed your mind
Tell her that it's over
Tell her please she's out of time
Tell her why

That day we met I think you knew that I was waiting for a boy like you
That love gives us why I live
Now tell me boy what can I do for you
Experience is what you need

I'll turn your innocence into greed
You'll walk on air
When I touch you there
So what do you I can do anything

Won't you tell her that you love me
Tell her that you've changed your mind
Tell her that it's over
Tell her please she's out of time
Won't you tell her that you love me
Tell her that it's over
Tell her please she's out of time

Don't give her hope she can cope
She'll sit by the window suffer from cold
She was born to lose you will always choose
Try me baby I can do anything

Won't you tell her that you love me
Tell her that you've changed your mind
Tell her that it's over
Tell her please she's out of time
