

Priscilla Ahn, It's Gonna Be Alright

Just walk away.
I don't wanna be that girl again.
That says goodbye to another broken hearted boyfriend.
But I'll let this slide.
cause you're different from all of them.
Yeah...
I need to learn when i've had enough.
I know its hard when the going gets tough.
But i don't want to stop this.
So promise me,
it's gonna be alright.
Someday you'll see, the hell is wrong with me.
Sometimes my mind is floating in another forein galaxy.
i'll leave behind all the tarot cards of an unknown prophecy.
I need to learn when i've had enough.
I know its hard when the going gets tough.
But i don't want to stop this.
So promise me,
it's gonna be alright.
So feel the waters and tell me,
what you wanna do to make it.
Cause i've got a piece of my mind,
saying its alright.
It's gonna be alright.
I'm going to try to stay as sane as i could possibly.
Big girls still cry so please be patient with me.
You and i were a match made at a birthday party.
