

Pristina, So Alive

Today I watch the boats moving through the harbor
Walking on water - in your arms I'd stay
Forever if I could, forever if I may
Keep me in your thoughts - don't disappear

I am on your side and so alive
So alive... it isn't real

If this is how I feel
Then nothing now is true
And nothing now can ever be taken away from you
Sinking in the past - the things that shouldn't last
Just put to bed and stand beside me
Always on your side

I am on your side and so alive
So alive... it isn't real
