

Private, Crucify My Heart

Girl every time you get me undressed
You move away and make me confess my
Love for you
You got my heart so why should i hide it
You say you want it to so why fight it
Like you do

Uh, you twist it and turn it
Uh, you twist it and burn it
Uh, you slash it and burn it

And then you crucify my heart
You crucify my heart
You crucify my heart
You crucify my heart

I know i could be waiting forever
Your love will keep me hanging and never let me know
You put a nail right into my heart
And i'm gonna have to make a new start and let you go

Uh, you twist it and turn it
Uh, you twist it and burn it
Uh, you slash it and burn it

And then you crucify my heart
You crucify my heart
You crucify my heart
You crucify my heart

You got it burning
You got it burning up
