

Private Line, Forever And A Day

High school drop-out beaten by the city scenes
Got slapped by crap she's seen all on her knees
Frustrated and so mistaken
Took it for real, but the world was fakin'
From the alley she made it through
Broken-hearted

You were always on my mind
Every time I open my eyes
It's like forever and a day
Season changes love to hate
And just too little, much too late
It lasts forever and a day
Today

Mouths are open fed by tears and pain
Love is for sale on the street without the name
Another night out, Janie was jaded
Another try-out, dreams were faded
Lust for life can break your heart in two

You were always on my mind
Every time I open my eyes
It's like forever and a day
Season changes love to hate
And just too little, much too late
It lasts forever and a day
Today

You were always on my mind
Every time I open my eyes
It's like forever and a day
Season changes love to hate
And just too little, much too late
It lasts forever and a day
It lasts forever and a day
It lasts forever and a day
Today

Much too late

[spoken]
Hell is filled
With people like you
