

Private Line, Little Sister

Just ask yourself why the kids ain't alright
A 10 year old boy, surfing on your site
Dreams how he could do the birthday surprise
And learn to make himself the dynamite
He said, "We make no compromise!"

Hey, little sister, don't think twice
Blow your head into the paradise
Hey, you, sweetie, give it a gun
You're not guilty of the damage done

12 year old girl unloved and so wild
No one at home to tuck her in at night
Searching for care from the man so kind
Ends up in the shelter with the unborn child
She said, "Give us something to idolize!"

Hey, little sister, don't think twice
Blow your head into the paradise
Hey, you, sweetie, give it a gun
You're not guilty of the damage done

We make no compromise
Give us something to idolize
We make no compromise
Give us something to idolize

Hey, little sister
(Hey, hey)
Hey, little sister, give it a gun
Hey, little sister
(Hey, hey)
Hey, little sister

Hey, little sister, don't think twice
Blow your head into the paradise
Hey, you, sweetie, give it a gun
You're not guilty of the damage done
You're not guilty of the damage done

Hey, little sister, don't think twice
Blow your head into the paradise
Hey, you, sweetie, give it a gun
You're not guilty of the damage done
