

Pro-Pain, All Fall Down

it's the crime of the century and millions are killed the cupboards are empty and pockets are filled a vicious intention to cut like a knife in light of redemption you fight for your life innocence is lost
and it cannot be found
hence the holocaust
tis' in sorrow we drown

all fall down

now the guns are for hire to kill on command
we jump in the fire
the time is at hand we'll keep it together and take it to heart
this hopeless endeavor till death do us part
