

Pro-Pain, Let Sleeping Dogs Lie

AMERICA SUCKS!

Yeah, what the fuck! I'm thinking of moving overseas
The heart of this country has fallen apart and the people, they grovel on their knees I vote and I vote and I vote, but no results tell me what the hell is going on I'll get on a boat pack a lunch and grab a six and set the cruise control for Hong Kong

We want the best, we get the worst We won the west under the big wide blue sky Forget the past, the duke is dead We're fading fast,
So let sleeping dogs lie

I'm sick of the sounds and sights and bright lights as the dixie band starts to play There's lots of paper hats, and flags wave But to me it's just another day I try and I try and I try to take a stand But it gets thrown back in my face Majority rules! Yeah right, not here
It takes bucks to enter the race
