

Pro-Pain, Love and War

crucify yourself
if you can save your face justify all your wealth and leave that nasty taste seek and ye shall find a world of discontent so sign that bottom line to pass the time well spent

I've waited all my life to live I've given all I had to give
I ran beyond that extra mile I've got to make this all worth while

all is fair in love and war dignified, we speak and all of us are never heard truth is all we seek lash out and spread the word paradise is lost and nothing is the same every line was crossed and no one took the blame

I've waited all my life to live
I've given all I had to give
