Yo its M-I-Z-Z R-E-D-Z I'm better than this don't have to take this believe me /
I'm so sick of feelin like I ain't enough if you love something let it go so I'm giving you up

(Verse 1: Misty)

Baby I don't know why but, I'm feelin as if am con-founded to you despite, all the hell you put me th
See I know that I can be much more than what you see / I don't need you stressin' on me /
Baby here's my chance I'm breakin' free

(Pre-Hook) Lil'Ace {Misty}

I think its time that I pack up my clothes and get out / Be seen and stretch my feet /
See what else is out there for me / See what this world is about /
Get my hands high and shout out / This is a brand new me
{Ohh baby, baby, baby, baby}

(Hook) Lil'Ace

I gotta see what's the deal / this could change how I feel /
I'm so sick of poppin' these pills / I think its time I play the field
(say twice)

(Verse 2: Misty)

I'm a explore my options and, see what I been missin' wit /
No hesitation for separation comes my relaxation /
Sorry but its been a change in plans, no it won't be no holdin' hands /
'cause I'm movin' on / Baby so much for wishful thinkin'

(Repeat Pre-Hook) / (Repeat Hook)

(Bridge) Misty, Lil'Ace

You don't take me where you wanna go / You act as if I'm not your girl /
Baby I must, play the field
Yo, I think its time that we part ways / Yo, all this stress its not a game
Baby your killing me, I think its time I play the field

(Break) Misty, Lil'Ace

(Repeat Hook) say once

(LaPret Rap) {Misty}

Yo, its that time that I break away 'cause honestly i can't take another day /
Of all this stress the heartache and the pain (yo, baby it is killing me)
Yo, I think its time that I play the field, 'cause ain't much happenin' for me here /
Yo, I'm on that midnight train to Georgia (baby I think its time I play the field)
