

Profyle, Kick It Tonight

its been cold for a week we dont talk
we dont speak
turn away from each other when we lie in bed i dont understand whats goin on in our head

how the pride
makes us blind
to the hurt
that we both know is killing us slowly inside why cant you and i decide?
some way
some how
right here
right now

[chorus:]
lets kick it tonight
i dont want to fight
forget who was wrong
forget who was right
if we can forgive each other enough then baby we'll learn how to get back to love it feels like by the way

years ago
it was only yesterday
and who would have known when we stood under moonlight and stars up above and swore that we'd never give up on our love

[chorus x2]

back to love oh
oooooooooh
when the words cut like knives through our hearts through our lives can we leran to love again?
love again oh
kick it tonight
i dont wanna fight no no
forget who's right
if we can forgive ooh ooh then baby ooh baby lets kick it tonight i dont wanna fight forget who was wrong
forget who was right
if we can forgive each other baby ooh ooh
