

Progress, Introspection

I wonder why I just hate everything.
I wonder why I can't see a beginning
I wonder it feels like my life's such a lie.
But I can't stop to try.

(chorus)
No salvation.
There is only the end
No redemption.
For which we wait my friend.

I wonder why things went so wrong.
I wonder why I feel like I don't belong.
I wonder why I just can't seem to succeed
To start a winning streak

(chorus)

(chorus)

Break:
The world around me is failing me.
I'm drowning in hate, filled with misery.
Frustration builds inside.
Sanity is gone too.
You caused these feelings, so I take it out on you.

I wonder why I always seem to fail.
I wonder why I live in such a hell.
I wonder why good things don't seem to last,
But that's all in the past

(chorus)
