

Progress, Silence Is Silver

(chorus)

Silence,
Is it there because we let it in?
Silence,
Isn't this what we're afraid of?
Silence,
Doesn't still the voices of the dead.

The things I see
On my TV.
are nothing less but a tragedy.
Human life just seems so frail.
And wasted.
I understand there's a demand,
But now the problems getting out of hand.
This silence is so deafening.

(chorus)

Another day, another slain,
By people who think that life's just a game.
They do not feel any burden
For taking
Another's love, another's dove,
Is sent to the big unknown above.
Its time to stop hiding and say:

(chorus 2x)

Our Society
Feels a tragedy
There's a pain from loss
Yet no reprisal
It's time to scream
To realize the dream
Of a better way.
