

Progress, We Are The Storm

I can see just what I have to do;
Take back the freedom that was taken by you.
Look at your safe world in disbelief.
For once look through my eyes, see what I see.

(Chorus)

Take your shelter if you are the norm
Hear us now: we are the storm!
In defiance we stand as one.
It has begun

As the clouds of our ideas are spreading on,
waking up the minds of those sleeping far too long.
We look like freaks but our minds are clear.
We won't buy into all the lies we hear.

(Chorus)

Never see the fucking world I see being beaten down for being differently
another day will pass on by.
You just look back and you'll see
We are the storm.
