

Project 86, Shiny Skin

Verse 1

I shut my eyes in attempts to try to sleep
Knowing that its impossible
The restlessness that grips me like a tomb
Pushes me toward tomorrow

Pre Chorus

Cause nothing ever can satisfy me like you

Chorus

Tear right through
This shiny skin
Cause it's a pressure that you cannot escape
Tear right through
And try to fill
Pretend the emptiness won't still remain

Verse 2

The countless images taunt me
With promises of surrender
What will tomorrow present me with
With a distraction from who provided it

Pre Chorus

Chorus

Bridge

Inside that box is a gift
That we will soon forget
It's not that we want what's inside of it
We just wanted to open it (open it)
(Open it, open it)
