

Project Jenny Project Jan, Brooklyn

It's always sunny in Brooklyn
Without a cloud in the sky
Yes, it's always so sunny in Brooklyn,
All the streets, well, they're clean and dry

It's snowing up in Queens
It's foggy in Manhattan
It's raining in the Bronx
And it's sleetin' down in Staten

But it's always so sunny in Brooklyn
Without a cloud in the sky

I hatched a plan to move someplace sunny
Not like the cloudy places before
I went to the bank and I took out my money
Packed up my bags and walked out the door

I walked around the globe with my suitcase in my hand
Lookin' for a sunny place to work on my tan,
And I found that place without hardly lookin'
On the sunny streets of Brooklyn, yea

It's always sunny in Brooklyn (it's always sunny!)
Without a cloud in the sky

Yes, it's always so sunny in Brooklyn
All those streets, well, they're clean and dry

It's snowing up in Queens
It's foggy in Manhattan
It's raining in the Bronx
And it's sleetin' down in Staten

But it's always so sunny in Brooklyn
Without a cloud in the sky

Well, I met you down at the Fulton Mall
At that cellphone shop
We exchanged numbers, said gimme a call
"flash you at" my heart, then "drive", oh well ("?")
We fell in love almost right away
And after that day, man, it never rained
We just kept on cookin'
On the sunny streets of Brooklyn

But it's always so sunny in Brooklyn
Without a cloud in the sky
Yea, it's always so sunny in Brooklyn
All those streets, well, they're clean and dry

It's snowing up in Queens
It's foggy in Manhattan
It's raining in the Bronx
And it's sleetin' down in Staten

But it's always so sunny in Brooklyn
Without a cloud in the sky (I really mean it!)
Without a cloud in the sky (last time tonight!)
Without a cloud in the sky
