Project Pitchfork, Sin

A star for you Velvet night Now count to eight Everything falls apart

You form the wax In my hand Now count to one Blood on the blossom

Be yourself No one else Now count to twenty We fall like kings and pawns

We share the feeling I take your hand Now count to five The angels fall silent

In the garden of hell
I lost my heart
So free yourself
You just have to start
See the other side
You just can win
Now be yourself
And drink my sin
Your soul will be free tonight
