

Project Pitchfork, We Are One (Mirror Split Up Into Pieces)

Standing and falling
Running and crawling
Stumbling towards the next day
A numb feeling in my heart
I look into your eyes
And everything falls apart

You may kill me
But the idea will survive
The sleeper awoke already
And now it's too late
To put him to sleep again

I look into your eyes
There is no boundary
You make me realize
We are one
Mirror split up into pieces

We are one
I look into your eyes
We are one
There is no boundary
We are one
You make me realize
We are one
Mirror split up into pieces

It was much easier to hide
The darkness covered us
Made us feel so safe
A senseless fight for nothing
In search of our own life
