

Project Wyze, Strangers Among Us

They say money is the root of all evil
But I think it's people
So many friends say they would die for you
But they lie to you
You were one I thought would never betray me
So where you been hiding lately?
It's kinda funny how you played me like a violin
Thought we would die as friends
Caught in your lies at the end
We could start over and try it again
I never knew our friendship could be so cutthroated
Dear Mr. Stranger, listen to this letter I wrote
You sold me out and that's the reason I hate you
You got a free ride home and I didn't even get a thank you
You though you could just walk away from this Tell me how does it feel to finally have to pay for this?

chorus:

Now tell me who's your friends
Because you never know
I can't forgive, I can't forget and I can't let it go
'Cauz time changes
And love changes
And best friends become strangers

Now tell me who's your friends
Because you never know
I can't forget and I can't let it go
'Cauz time changes
And love changes
And best friends become strangers

They say time heals all wounds
But I'm still bleeding
Seeing friends become enemies
Now what's left
Nothing but bad memories
I'm feeling confused used and left stranded
I feel played and betrayed, I know you planned it
I know you thought you left me empty-handed
You know where Bobby and Yas are headed and you can't stand it
God damn it
You see, I never knew our friendship could be so cutthroat
Dear Stranger, listen to this letter I wrote
You sold me out and that's the reason I hate you
You waled away and I'm glad I had to replace you
You made your choice now you can live with it
Tell me how does it feel to finally have to pay for it

Misfits, strangers, liars, friends
Misfits, strangers, liars, friends
Misfits, strangers, liars, friends

You sold me out and that's the reason I hate you
You, and now we're friends i thought we'd die together
You sold me out and that's the reason I hate you
You, and now we're friends but nothing lasts forever

You sold me out and that's the reason I hate you
You, and now we're friends but you stabbed me in the back
You sold me out and that's the reason I hate you
You, and now we're friends and now there's no turning back

Now tell me who's your friends
Because you never know
I can't forget and I can't let it go
'Cauz time changes
And love changes

Damn
