

Projecto, Doomsday Fight

When every day and every night
Will be a single thing
The sky will shine with a golden light
This will be the sign

We have upset our destiny
Coverin' it with shame
It will inflict it's penalty
Like a burning flame

We will be together
To keep up the right
We will win forever
In the doomsday fight

The judgement day is reaching us
Sponging out our senses
The power of love will save us
Improving our defenses
