

Promise Ring, Arms & Danger

You Yeah you noone could be happier for you
I was born in 1968. Born to replace Bobby Kenedy.
Hours after after hours,
our afternoon hours are after us now.
Hours before we go and still will not know.
Were all arms and dangerous,
were all almost famous for it.
And I've got got got got names for her and they're all the same, I'd bet.
Hours before you go,
I still will not know
And i dont know if people or time will ever move slow.
So you, Do you, Do you know what you've got going good for you
yeah and you, Noone could be happier for you
noone could be happier for you, Noone could be happier for you
We'll be palms in paradise when the pearly gates see our pearly whites.
So all palms in for paradise.
The second coming of our birth rights.
Hours before you go,
I still will not know
And i dont know if people or time will ever move slow.
Do you know what you've got going good for you.
yeah and you, Noone could be happier for you
noone could be happier for you, Noone could be happier for you.
Were all arms and dangerous,
were all almost famous for it.
Hours before we go and still will not know.
And i dont know if people or time ever will move slow.
You do you, Do you know what you've got going good for you,
yeah and you, noone could be happier for you.
noone could be happier for you, Noone could be happier for you
