

Prong, Innocence Gone

I had a new premonition
I have found the nonlight
I've had a brand new renewal of sight

Do you need a new genuflection?
Do you wanna make a different pact?
You've got to get in with the facts

It's the end - innocence gone
Your whole meaning becomes undone

You've made an art of treachery
You can snake right out of anything
I've said I won't do not a thing
To the double negative you can only agree

Are you waiting for your resurrection?
Do you wanna make a different pact?
You've got to get in with the facts

Do you need a new genuflection?
Do you wanna make a different pact?
You've got to get in with the facts

It's the end - innocence gone
Your whole meaning becomes undone

Innocence gone
Innocence gone
Innocence gone
Innocence gone

It's the end - innocence gone
Your whole meaning becomes undone
It's the end - innocence gone
Your whole meaning becomes undone
