

Prong, Without Hope

I just know its all gone wrong
feeling all the pressures can't weather the storm
Cause I kept myself in a cage
all wound up and filled up with rage

I just know its all gone wrong
feeling all the pressures can't weather the storm
Cause I kept myself in a cage
all wound up and filled up with rage

Forgive oneself of nothing at all
Pounding my head against the wall
Guilt ridden and bound to lose
Puncture my wounds, won't see the truth

I looked in the mirror, what did I see?
One man bitter with apathy
The whole thing turned out to be a joke
But I'm not laughing
I'm without hope

I'm without hope

It's never well thought out, just my instant demise
Haste and hatred my inner desire
It's all so bitter the hurt inside
Haste and hatred my inner desire

Ruptured I've lost it all
My heart ripped out can't stand at all
Cause I've cost my brain to never relax
Picking at all the torturous facts

I just know its all gone wrong
feeling all the pressures can't weather the storm

It's never well thought out, just my instant demise
Haste and hatred my inner desire
It's all so bitter the hurt inside
Haste and hatred my inner desire

My inner desire
It's my inner desire

It's never well thought out, just my instant demise
Haste and hatred my inner desire
It's all so bitter the hurt inside
Haste and hatred my inner desire

It's my inner desire
